

E-LEARNING PLATFORMS

You have your online teaching business but don't have your personal e-teaching platform yet?

Using different e-learning platforms, you earn just a piece of your income where you have to pay commissions and promote their brand.

On your personal e-teaching platform you will get the advantage. The fantastic thing about this is that you will own all the money you make, with 0% transaction fees. Sell online course from your own website and earn money without sharing your income.

Want to know how?

Give us a shout

AIST Global is everything you need to move your online teaching business to the next level

Do what you love and earn money

Forget about annual or monthly payments

Forget about sharing your income

Forget about limited template designs

Be the owner of your business

Pay one-time, use lifetime

One-time payment for a website gives you lifetime access. As far as you purchase the e-teaching site, you are entitled to a lifetime license. It means you are guaranteed to use your platform the way you like.

We will train you how to easily use the platform. You decide everything on this platform. You choose to host any files, PDF, MC Office, PPT, etc. You pay for the product (website) only the first time, and you never face any additional fee, subscription fee, or other hidden fees.

Get the opportunity to install unlimited online courses. Become an online instructor, inspire students with your education service and earn money throughout your lifetime.
